

Business Engagement Experiences

In a nutshell...

Our charity's work is centred around people and positive action. We are focusing on inspiring Ocean advocacy through connections with nature, combined with our ground-breaking work protecting & restoring vital Ocean habitats.

The people people

Our team of marine biologists, rangers, researchers, and divers are all Ocean optimists.

We work tirelessly to connect people to the Ocean with an optimistic and solutions-based approach, centred around physical and emotional connections with nature.

Get involved

If you're looking for the perfect away day, staff engagement afternoon, or wellbeing experience then our Business Engagement experiences are the perfect way to connect with the Ocean and enhance your business.

Join in and help out

Donating your time

Our charity is always looking for people to connect with us and support one of our projects with their time. If you're looking for a quick way to get involved, then why not try;

Joining us on one of our pre-planned Southwest beach cleans. Perfect for small groups looking to make an impact, just sign up to one of our sessions and we'll see you there!

Joining one of our seagrass seed packing events. These happen at different times during the year when we require large groups of volunteers to help pack seagrass bags for us to deploy to the seabed.

Taking part and sharing our #thinkocean challenge. We're on a mission to get as many people to #thinkocean in their day to day lives. By finding out what kind of Ocean thinker you are, you can find ways to change the way you impact the Ocean.
